SECTION A - DISCLOSURE ON MALAYSIAN CODE ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Disclosures in this section are pursuant to Rule 15.25 of Bursa Malaysia Listing Requirements.

Intended Outcome

Every company is headed by a board, which assumes responsibility for the company's leadership and is collectively responsible for meeting the objectives and goals of the company.

Practice 1.1

The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards, and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and other stakeholders are understood and met.

Application	: Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	The Group is led by an experienced diversified and yet sleek Board which comprises professionals from various fields to bring together a balance of skills, mix of experience and expertise in areas relevant to enhance the growth of Group's business. The Directors collectively bring to bear their wide and varied technical, financial, corporate, and engineering experience to enable the Board to lead and control the Group effectively. Roles and Responsibilities The Board's function, amongst others, is to guide the Group on its short and long-term goals, providing advice, stewardship and directions on the management and business of the Group. The Board's principal responsibilities include the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • reviewing and adopting a strategic plan for the Group; • overseeing the conduct of the Group's businesses; • identifying principal risks and ensuring the implementation of appropriate internal control systems and risk management policies and procedures to manage these risks; • establishing succession plan, including appointing, training, replacing directors and key senior management; • overseeing the development and implementation of shareholder communication policy of the Group; • reviewing the adequacy and the integrity of the Group's internal control systems, risk management framework and management information systems, including systems for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules, directives and guidelines; • monitoring and reviewing management processes aimed at ensuring the integrity of financial and other reporting;

- ensuring that the Company's financial statements are true and fair and conform with the accounting standards; and
- ensuring that the Company adheres to high standards of ethics and corporate behaviour.

To enable the Board to discharge its role and functions effectively, the Board has established the following committees:

- Audit Committee ("AC");
- Nomination Committee ("NC"); and
- Remuneration Committee ("RC").

The above roles and responsibilities have been formalised in the Board Charter and Terms of Reference ("ToR") which is uploaded onto the Company's website at www.seb.net.my.

Code of Conduct

The Board has formalised a Code of Conduct which reflects the Group's vision and core values of integrity, respect and trust. The core areas concerned include the following:

- compliance with laws;
- fair dealing;
- confidentiality and protection of company assets;
- conflict of interest;
- know your customer and proper documentation; and
- occupational, health, safety and environment.

The Code of Conduct governs the conduct of the Directors and all employees of the Group and provides guidance on the communication process and the duty to report whenever there are breaches of the same. This Code of Conduct is reviewed and updated from time to time by the Board to ensure that it continues to remain relevant and appropriate.

The Code of Conduct can be viewed on the Group's website.

Whistle-blowing Policy and Procedures

To maintain the highest standards of ethical conduct, the Group has a formal Whistle-blowing Policy and Procedures. As prescribed in this policy, the Board gave their assurance that employees' and third parties' identities will be kept confidential and whistle-blowers will not be at risk to any form of victimisation or retaliation from their superiors or any member of Executive Management provided that the reporting is in good faith.

All concerns raised will be investigated and whistle-blowers can report through telephone or via dedicated e-mail to the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”). If this is considered inappropriate, reports can be made to the AC Chairperson via dedicated e-mail.

The Whistle-blowing Policy and Procedures can be viewed on the Company’s website.

Sustainability

The responsibility to promote and embed sustainability in the Group lies with the Board and in this respect, it strives to achieve continuing growth and profitability in a safe, caring and sustainable environment.

The Group’s Sustainability Statement is set out on pages 4 to 8 of the Annual Report 2019.

Succession Plan

The Group recognises that effective succession planning is integral to the delivery of its strategic plans. It is essential to ensure a continuous level of quality in key management, in avoiding instability by helping mitigate the risks which may be associated with any unforeseen events, such as the departure of a key individual, and in promoting diversity.

Given the current state of the Group’s business and life cycle, there is an informal succession plan for Executive Management put in place by the CEO. At the relevant and appropriate time, the CEO will look into a structured approach to the said plan with the Board.

Access to Information and Advice

All Directors have unrestricted access to Executive Management and the service and advice of the Company Secretary and the internal and external auditors (via the AC) and they as a whole or individually may also seek independent professional advice if necessary, at the Group’s expense to enable them to discharge their duties and responsibilities.

Non-Executive members of the Board are kept updated on the Group’s activities and operations by the CEO on a regular basis and all Directors have the right of access to all reports on the Group’s activities, both financial and operational.

The Directors also received updates from time to time on relevant new laws and regulations. Visits by the Non-Executive Directors to the Group’s businesses were also arranged for enhancement of their knowledge in respect of the Group’s businesses as well as better awareness of the risks associated with the Group's operations.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.2

The tenure of an independent director does not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. Upon completion of the nine years, an independent director may continue to serve on the board as a non-independent director.

If the board intends to retain an independent director beyond nine years, it should justify and seek annual shareholders' approval. If the board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board has implemented a nine-year policy for Independent Directors, whereby it shall not exceed a cumulative term limit of nine years. However, an Independent Director may continue to serve on the Board beyond nine years subject to his or her re-designation as a Non-Independent Director. In the event that said Director is to remain designated as an Independent Director, the Board shall, upon the recommendation by the NC justify and obtain shareholders' approval for the Director concerned to be retained as an Independent Director. If the Board continues to retain the independent director after the twelfth year, the Board should seek annual shareholders' approval through a two-tier voting process. As of the date of the forthcoming 40th Annual General Meeting ("AGM"), Tan Sri Dato' Ahmad Fuzi Haji Abdul Razak has been in office for more than nine (9) years. The Board shall seek shareholders' approval at the said AGM for him to be retained as Independent Director.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.3 - Step Up

The board has a policy which limits the tenure of its independent directors to nine years.

Application :	Not Adopted
Explanation on adoption of the practice :

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.4

Appointment of board and senior management are based on objective criteria, merit and with due regard for diversity in skills, experience, age, cultural background and gender.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	In assessing the suitability of any candidate for the directorship, the Board (via the NC) will take into consideration the candidate's reputation, educational background, skills, knowledge, expertise, competence and experience that is in line with the Group's business operations, age, time commitment, independence and integrity. Hence, the NC is responsible for the appointment of Directors and is delegated the role of screening and conducting an initial selection, which included an external search, before making any recommendation to the Board for approval. As for Executive Management, the Board is committed to providing fair and equal opportunities and nurturing diversity in the Group. In this respect, all persons, regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, cultural background or other personal factors, with the appropriate experience and qualifications will be considered during recruitment and promotion. Given the current state of the Group's business and life cycle, there is an informal succession plan for Executive Management already put in place by the CEO.
Explanation for departure	:
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	At the relevant and appropriate time, the CEO will look into a structured approach to the informal succession plan for Executive Management with the Board.
Timeframe	:	No specific timeframe set.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.5

The board discloses in its annual report the company's policies on gender diversity, its targets and measures to meet those targets. For Large Companies, the board must have at least 30% women directors.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board is of the view that, while it is important to promote boardroom diversity in terms of gender, age and ethnicity, the normal selection criteria based on an effective blend of competencies, skills, extensive experience and knowledge to strengthen the Board should remain a priority. The Board currently has one (1) female only among its five (5) members (I.e. 20%). The Board opined that given the current state of the Group's business and life cycle, it is more important to have the right mix of skills on the Board rather than to attaining the 30% threshold as stipulated in Practice 4.5 for Large Companies'. Nevertheless, the Board supports the initiative to include female representation on the Board to achieve a more gender diversified Board. As for the Group's Diversity Policy, it is disclosed in the Corporate Governance Overview Statement on pages 19 to 24 of the Annual Report 2019.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	The Board will be on the look for potential female candidate(s) to be appointed as additional female Director(s) as and when a suitable candidate(s) is/are identified.
Timeframe	:	No specific timeframe set.

Intended Outcome

Board decisions are made objectively in the best interests of the company taking into account diverse perspectives and insights.

Practice 4.6

In identifying candidates for appointment of directors, the board does not solely rely on recommendations from existing board members, management or major shareholders. The board utilises independent sources to identify suitably qualified candidates.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	Although it has been the norm for the Board to rely on existing Directors or Executive Management or major shareholders to recommend candidates for appointment of Directors, the Board via the NC, if appropriate, will also rely on recommendations from business associates, advisers, etc. for potential candidates for appointment to the Board. The NC may also obtain and rely upon independent sources such as a directors' registry, open advertisement or use of independent search firms in furtherance of their duties at the Company's expense, subject to approval by the Chairman or the Board, depending on the quantum of the fees involved. If the selection of candidates were solely based on the recommendations made by the Management, the existing Board member(s) or major shareholder(s), the NC will explain why other source were not used.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to form an opinion on the overall effectiveness of the board and individual directors.

Practice 5.1

The board should undertake a formal and objective annual evaluation to determine the effectiveness of the board, its committees and each individual director. The board should disclose how the assessment was carried out and its outcome.

For Large Companies, the board engages independent experts periodically to facilitate objective and candid board evaluations.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The Board (via the NC) evaluates the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, all Board committees of and the contribution of each individual Director. This evaluation which is done annually is facilitated by the Company Secretary and conducted using evaluation forms covering the following aspects: (i) Board as a whole <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Board composition• Strategy• Board meeting• Corporate/Management reporting• Human capital• Risk Management• Investor relations (ii) Directors <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Integrity and ethics• Contributions/Interaction• Knowledge, judgement and decision making• Understanding of role• Leadership• Board chairman's role• Character• Experience• Integrity• Competence• Time commitment (iii) Audit Committee <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Composition• Decision making• Expertise• Appropriate reporting and recommendations• Quality of communication to the Board• Minutes• Reporting to the Board

	Completed evaluation forms and the results of the evaluations are collated into a report and deliberated on by the NC and subsequently by the Board and key issues arising thereon if are identified for further action by the Executive Management. Based on the evaluation carried out for the financial year ended 30 June 2019, the NC informed the Board that it was satisfied with the effectiveness of the Board and Board committees and the contribution and performance of each individual Director.

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 6.1

The board has in place policies and procedures to determine the remuneration of directors and senior management, which takes into account the demands, complexities and performance of the company as well as skills and experience required. The policies and procedures are periodically reviewed and made available on the company's website.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board (via the RC) will ensure that the Group's levels of remuneration commensurate with the skills and responsibilities expected of the Directors. The Board, as a whole, determines the remuneration of the Directors and each individual Director is required to abstain from discussing his or her own remuneration. The RC is guided by their years of experience when making recommendations for the compensation and benefits of Directors. The RC's recommended remuneration for Executive Directors is subject to Board's approval as it is the ultimate responsibility of the Board to approve the remuneration of such Directors. In relation to the fees and allowances for Directors, it will be presented at the annual general meeting for shareholders' approval. As at to-date, the Board has yet to formalise the Remuneration Policy and Procedures of Directors and Executive Management.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	The Board shall formalise the Remuneration Policy and Procedures of Directors and Executive Management as planned.
Timeframe	:	By the financial year ending 30 June 2020

Intended Outcome

The level and composition of remuneration of directors and senior management take into account the company's desire to attract and retain the right talent in the board and senior management to drive the company's long-term objectives.

Remuneration policies and decisions are made through a transparent and independent process.

Practice 6.2

The board has a Remuneration Committee to implement its policies and procedures on remuneration including reviewing and recommending matters relating to the remuneration of board and senior management.

The Committee has written Terms of Reference which deals with its authority and duties and these Terms are disclosed on the company's website.

Application	:	Applied
Explanation on application of the practice	:	The RC was established with clearly defined ToR, comprises three (3) Non-Executive Directors of whom two (2) are Independent Directors and one (1) is Non-Independent Director. The RC is chaired by Tan Sri Dato' Ahmad Fuzi Haji Abdul Razak, who is an Independent Director. The RC's ToR is available on the Company's website.

Measure	:
Timeframe	:

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to assess whether the remuneration of directors and senior management is commensurate with their individual performance, taking into consideration the company's performance.

Practice 7.1

There is detailed disclosure on named basis for the remuneration of individual directors. The remuneration breakdown of individual directors includes fees, salary, bonus, benefits in-kind and other emoluments.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	The Board is of the view that such disclosure may not be in the best interest of the Group due to sensitivity and confidentiality concerns as the remuneration packages of Directors is formulated to be competitive and realistic, and emphasis being place on performance. Hence, the non-disclosure on named basis is a way to attract and retain existing Directors with relevant experience and skills that needed to manage the Group effectively. Remuneration packages of Executive Directors are in relation with the corporate and individual performance while Non-Executive Directors remunerations are in relation with their experience and level of responsibilities undertaken. The determination of remuneration of Executive Directors is determined by the RC whilst the determination of the remuneration package of Non-Executive Directors shall be a matter to be determined by the Board as a whole after taking into consideration the RC's recommendation. In view that the none disclosures on named basis for the remuneration of Executive and Non-Executive Director will not adversely affect the interest of its shareholders, the Board has decided to disclose the remuneration packages in bands of RM50,000 in the Corporate Governance Overview Statement as an alternative.
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.

Measure	:	The Company does not have any alternative plan to meet the intended outcome.
Timeframe	:	No specific time frame set.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to assess whether the remuneration of directors and senior management is commensurate with their individual performance, taking into consideration the company's performance.

Practice 7.2

The board discloses on a named basis the top five senior management's remuneration component including salary, bonus, benefits in-kind and other emoluments in bands of RM50,000.

Application	:	Departure
Explanation on application of the practice	:
Explanation for departure	:	While the Board is cognisant on the importance of transparency, given the competitive search for talent within the industry, as well as other sensitive considerations, the Board believes that individual disclosure on named basis is not in the best interest of the Company. Further, such disclosure does not prejudice stakeholders' interest. This is also in line with the Group's policy of ensuring the privacy of its non-Board employees as well as the competitiveness of the Group in general. Apart from that, the said disclosure may also attract unnecessary head-hunting activities from competitors which will ultimately jeopardize on the Group's operations. Hence, the Board opined that the disclosure of the compensation of key management personnel in Note 29(c) to the financial statements on page 85 of the Annual Report 2019 is deemed adequate as it complies with Paragraph 17 of Malaysian Financial Reporting Standard 124 "Related Party Disclosures".
Large companies are required to complete the columns below. Non-large companies are encouraged to complete the columns below.
Measure	:	The Company does not have any alternative plan to meet the intended outcome.
Timeframe	:	No specific time frame set.

Intended Outcome

Stakeholders are able to assess whether the remuneration of directors and senior management commensurate with their individual performance, taking into consideration the company's performance.

Practice 7.3 - Step Up

Companies are encouraged to fully disclose the detailed remuneration of each member of senior management on a named basis.
